

Faculty Members Attend ALC Convention In Texas

Three Wartburg administrative and faculty members and a Waverly pastor are attending the American Lutheran Church Convention at San Antonio, Tex., which runs from Oct. 9-16.

Beaetke

College President, Dr. C. H. Becker, is representing Wartburg as an advisory member of the Board of Christian Higher Education. Dr. W. F. Schmidt, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Waverly, is acting chairman of that board.

The Rev. August Baetke, head of the Sociology Department, is a member of the Board for Christian Social Action. Fred Thompson represents the college as admissions director.

Completing a crowded week's schedule, Dr. Becker will travel to Scranton, N.D., with Development Director the Rev. Martin Ackermann Friday, Oct. 17.

President Becker will preach in Scranton Sunday, Oct. 19. While there, he and Pastor Ackermann will continue college promotion work.

'57 Fortress Rated Tops

"All-American," Superior, is the rating received by last year's yearbook, The Fortress, according to a report received yesterday from the Associated Collegiate Press by Larry Everett, editor of this year's annual.

Out of 43 annuals judged in Wartburg's class, only three received the coveted placing. Last year's All-American editor, Leonard Flachman, is now attending Capital Seminary, Columbus, Ohio, and employed part-time by the Wartburg Press, helping edit one of the Sunday School feature papers.

This is the third such rating received by Fortress yearbooks and the second consecutive "All-American" received. The 1957 Fortress, edited by Richard Larson, now attending law school at the University of Illinois, and the 1953 edition, edited by George Hanusa, now a pastor at Alta Vista, also received the highest rating given by ACP.

Annual Pics Rescheduled

Individual pictures for the Fortress, originally scheduled for last Monday and Tuesday, will be taken this week Monday and Tuesday in the Wartburg Hall Lounge.

Music, Voecks Slated For Convo

Music Department will entertain at Tuesday's convo with five instrumental solos and group singing. Dr. Walter Voecks, chairman of the Wartburg Board of Regents and president of Lutheran Mutual, Waverly, will speak to the Student Body Thursday.

Soloists for Tuesday will be Robert Pannkuk, sophomore, playing the French horn; Catherine Carr, sophomore, oboe; Patricia Dieterich, freshman, clarinet; Phyllis Eske, freshman, marimba; and Gail Lovold, freshman, alto sax. Maynard Anderson, music instructor, will lead the Student Body in group singing.

SEA'S To Meet

Miss Stella M. Austerud, Education Department, and members of Wartburg's Student Education Association will attend the Northeast Regional meeting of the SEA at the Junior College in Mason City Oct. 14.

Richard Carrigan, assistant secretary of the National Teacher Education Commission Professional Standards Committee of the NEA, will be featured speaker.

SEA is one of the largest organizations on the Wartburg campus.

Government Coordination Emphasized By Senate

Co-ordination between the Student Senate and class government, a chapel change and the student retreat were stressed at the Senate meeting Monday night.

A convocation to encourage a closer relationship between the Senate and classes was suggested by LeRoy Boseneiler, sophomore senator. The convocation would illustrate the Senate in action.

Committee List Needed
How to refer individual problems to the right student government committee is a problem facing students, as pointed out by Dave Grube, sophomore senator. Proposed solution is to make a list of committee members available to the students.

In other action, one evening chapel service at 6:30 will be the rule beginning Monday. Elimination of second chapel and change of starting time were results of poor attendance and inconvenience for meetings.

Retreat Reviewed
Discussion also centered around the Leadership Retreat being held today at Heery Woods State Park, Clarksville. The program as set up by the Senate Executive Committee was presented to the group.

Junior Senator Howard Schroeder, chairman of the Religious Activities Committee, reported on progress in his area. A campus church was briefly discussed. Placement of the Victory Bell in the lobby of Knights Gymnasium was also considered. The bell was won from Upper Iowa in the football game here Oct. 4.

Chest Committee Chosen By Buhr

Members of the Campus Chest Committee were recently appointed by the Student Senate Executive Committee and senior Roger Buhr, Campus Chest chairman.

Seniors Lois Huth and John Pavelka, juniors Beverly Schoeman and Ronald Freimark, sophomores Deanna Stob and Fred Mai and freshman Pat Schiefelbein and Donald Dietzler were named to the committee.

Function of the group is to organize solicitation and allocate donations to charities. Organizational heads are being questioned about charity preference. Further details of the drive, which will be held Nov. 17-26, will receive consideration at a committee meeting Monday.

Profs At Conference

Dr. Edwin Sandberg, Mrs. Margaret Garland, Miss Marilyn Lundell and Miss Erna Moehl, all Wartburg English instructors, are attending the Iowa Conference on English in Des Moines today.

Two areas are being covered by the conference, that of the aspects of humor in literature and testing and curriculum.

Homecoming Wheels Are Rolling

By Linda Mugridge

Buttons and bands, rooms and royalty bob to the fore as plans progress for Wartburg's Homecoming Oct. 24-26.

Homecoming buttons, designed to advertise both Wartburg and the celebration, will go on sale a week before Homecoming, according to soph Don Claggett, novelties chairman. Price will be 35 cents.

Get Your Novelties

Shakers, cowbells, pennants, confetti and balloons will also be available. The balloons, which will be released at the game, are entries in a distance-flight contest. Owner of the balloon sailing the farthest will win a prize.

"All items are priced to fit the student's pocketbook," commented Claggett.

Other Homecoming activity centers about the parade, which this year will include 24 floats and five bands. In addition to the Wartburg Band, high school bands from Shell Rock, Denver, St. Ansgar and Plainfield will march in the parade.

Plaque To Be Hung

Name of the organization sponsoring the prize-winning float will be inscribed on a plaque to be hung in the Den. Inscription of the winner's name on the plaque will be made each year for the next 17 years. Second- and third-place floats will receive recognition.

Float judges will be Dr. Manoocher Aryanpur, English Department; Robert Hickle, personnel manager at Schield Bantam Company, Waverly; and a Wartburg alumnus yet to be named.

Dorms To Open Doors

Dormitory Open House is set for Saturday, Oct. 25, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., and Sunday, Oct. 26, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Rooms will be judged by faculty members between 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

Voting during convocation Thursday, the Student Body will select ten girls, five juniors and five seniors, as Homecoming royalty candidates. Final election of the queen, who must be a senior, and her four court members, who may be either juniors or seniors, will take place Oct. 21.

Grube Memorials Go For Buildings

A total of $597.50 has been given toward the future science building and chapel-auditorium funds in memory of Dr. Orin Grube, 1953 Wartburg graduate. Of this sum, $585.50 was donated for the science building.

Wartburg groups contributing were Student Senate, faculty and staff, cafeteria, Den and sophomore class.

Dr. Grube, who died in Iowa City Sept. 21, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Grube and brother of David Grube, sophomore student here. Mrs. Grube manages the Wartburg cafeteria and Den.

MENC To Hear Wessling Speak

Music Educators National Conference (MENC) will hear Dr. Wolfgang Wessling, Wartburg exchange professor from Germany, in the Fine Arts Building Thursday, Oct. 16, at 7 p.m.

Dr. Wessling will talk about Music and Music Education in Germany.

DEUTSCH TREAT?

Wessling Teaches Native Tongue

By Jean Zell

How would you like to learn German with the latest German accent? That opportunity now exists since Wartburg acquired Dr. Wolfgang Wessling, an exchange instructor from Germany. He comes to Wartburg under the Fulbright Exchange Act.

Dr. Wessling's birthplace, Berlin, Germany, also was the scene of his education. He attended high school in Berlin, the University of Berlin and the Free University of Berlin, where he received his doctorate. In his regular position in the German school system, he is a history instructor, which is his major, though he is teaching German at Wartburg.

Wessling Travels

In his spare time, Dr. Wessling likes to travel. He has traveled extensively in England, Belgium, Austria and Italy. Traveling has a four-fold purpose for Dr. Wessling. It is 1. a way of relaxation; 2. a means of recreation; 3. an improvement of education; 4. promotion of international standing.

"To understand a nation, one must first understand the people individually. People are individually the same the world over," was Dr. Wessling's conclusion from his travels.

In the summer he belongs to a rowing club and in the winter months he likes to ski.

Likes Campus Life

When asked about general impressions of Wartburg College, he answered, "I am very much impressed. It is a well equipped school with many means spent on education, although certain fields are not stressed as in Germany, such as foreign languages. In the German school system, foreign language is compulsory at the age of 10. I think the college campus life is a very nice thing and would like to see it introduced in Germany."

Teaching is not a strange field for Dr.

NOT A SHUTTERBUG, but interested in the hobby, is Dr. Wolfgang Wessling, Wartburg Exchange professor from Germany.

Wessling. His father is a retired teacher and an older brother is now teaching in the Berlin school system. His brother has spent half a year in Canada teaching under the Fulbright Act.

After the school year is finished, Dr. Wessling plans to tour the United States more extensively before returning to Germany, where he will resume his teaching duties.

We Appreciate Our Support

Smack in the middle of the Corn Belt near the northern boundary of Iowa, there lies a small city called Waverly. In this town reside some six thousand industrious people. Also located in this town is a rapidly growing educational institution called Wartburg College.

Basically this college isn't much different from most of the some two thousand similar undergraduate schools in the United States. Functionally, it has, among other things, its music groups, its athletics, its annual and its student newspaper, YOUR Trumpet.

Unlike some college newspapers, however, this paper is managed and completely supported by student enterprise. Wartburg administration does not hand the Trumpet a large sum of money at the beginning of each year with which to meet operating expenses. Nor does the administration have a "kitty" set aside in case that this paper should go in the red financially during the year.

Each week the Trumpet has a circulation of approximately 2,000-2,500 copies. Thirty issues of the Trumpet will roll off the presses this year. Total cost for the coming year will exceed $6,300. Of this amount, $2,600 will come from student activity fees and $1,300 from outside subscriptions. That leaves $2,400, or about $80 per issue, to make up.

An average of about ten dollars per issue comes from national advertising, cigarette ads and such. The remaining $70 comes from businessmen in Waverly. It is evident that without their support, we could not publish a student newspaper.

It is with this in mind that we offer this space to pay tribute to the Waverly merchants who keep our presses rolling. They are the backbone of every Trumpet in the mailboxes today.

Some college papers report that obtaining such an amount, even in cities much larger than Waverly, is practically impossible. Drawing $70 per week in Waverly requires nearly one hundred per cent co-operation on the part of the merchants.

Businessmen realize that advertising is an important part of sales success. Waverly merchants are aware of the potential supplied by our growing student body. They are eager to serve you. We encourage readers to remind merchants that their ads were seen in the Trumpet.

To the students of Wartburg, the Trumpet commends your response and friendly attitude toward Waverly merchants. To the Waverly merchants we can only say an appreciative "Thank you." W.F.

CAMPUS VOICE

Chaplain Airs Opinions On Student Suitcasism

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your editorial "Packing Again?" in the Oct. 4 issue. Having a five-day or a seven-day college week is a concern of all of us, and it is gratifying to see student leaders so seriously wrestling with it.

Excellent though your editorial is, as far as it goes, it represents, in my opinion, a serious over-simplification of the problem. Is it primarily a matter of our weekend social calendar, as your editorial seems to imply, or can something even more crucial be said for the central importance of the academic life of the college?

A five-day college week becomes a possibility only if students are uniformly brilliant or if academic standards are such that even the average student can fulfill supposedly full-time requirements by a part-time performance.

To some of us, it appears an extremely unhappy development that the latter has come to be a rather widely accepted attitude. It is doubly to be regretted if, in our speaking and writing, we add to the impression that this is the way it ought to be.

With our crowded activities calendar for the five-day week, as reflected by the news coverage of the Trumpet, your tendency to look for a social solution to our weekend problem leads us even farther away from our primary reason for existing, which is to be students.

By definition, a student is one who studies, so how about a sustained campaign by the Trumpet for a more academic use of our time which seems to hang so heavy, especially on weekends?

Respectfully,
E. A. Schick, College Chaplain

Knight Life

By Don Claggett

Help! Help! Golf does not consume most of my time, and I am not the President of the United States, but I too need a "ghost writer." Please, dear editor, where is the spy ring that gathers info for this column?

Who said the Braves would win 4 games to 3? I would like salt and pepper with my words. Henceforth, Dick Chellevoid will make the sports predictions for this column.

Sweet revenge finally came to Wartburg sport followers last Saturday when the "Jomen" defeated Upper Iowa in the final seconds of play. Don't call us lucky, Upper Iowa. We learned the trick from watching you play basketball.

While "gunning" late one night we heard the Little Rock, Ark., radio station sign off. Their closing format reads, "Good-night and good luck from the voice of Little Rock, Ark., the land of opportunity." We were confused at first, but later realized that Gov. Faubus probably owns the station.

"Happy Birthday" was sung in the Den last Thursday by 30 people who had gathered to celebrate Donald Lee Sahling's birthday. Incidentally, Don, what was in that shoe box?

At the recent sock hop on campus many were complaining about the poor attendance. At last night's free movie the story was the other way around: many were wishing fewer had shown up. This was probably due to the fact that the movie was presented under the stars with attenders closely seated on blankets.

Waverly's golf course has alleviated pesky ball hunters only to be infested with apple-hunters. How many apples do you get per acre, Bob Moeller?

Questions asked by many: Why can't we check reserve books out to read in the library on Sunday? Why not have pizza in the Den on Sunday nights?

7:30 Contest At Buena Vista Tonight

Page 3
The Wartburg Trumpet
Saturday, October 4, 1958

Another important Iowa Conference battle is at hand for the Wartburg Knights when they travel to Storm Lake tonight to take on the Buena Vista Beavers.

Coach Norm Johansen is expecting a rugged contest with the Beavers, who have split their only two games in conference play, downing Parsons 27-6 and losing to Upper Iowa 12-0.

Way They Line Up

The tentative starting lineup for the game includes Wayne Dreier and Ray Boyens at the ends, Ron Krueger and Jack Reents at tackles, Don Sahling and Jim Arjes at the guards and Larry Collmann at center.

Marv Ott will be at quarter with Dave Jensen and Tom Van Wyngarden at the halfbacks. Larry Raper will round out the lineup at fullback.

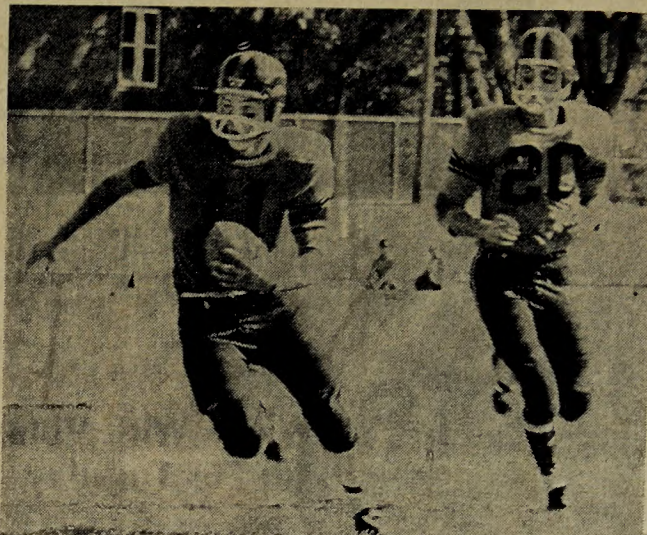

An 11-yard pass from quarterback Marv Ott to halfback Dave Jensen in the closing seconds of the fourth quarter resulted in a 26-20 win for Wartburg over Upper Iowa last Saturday.

The winning touchdown drive started on the Knights' own 35-yard line with only 1:54 left in the game. The passing arms of Ott and Leroy Boseneiler moved the ball down the field, and with seven seconds left, Ott tossed a perfect strike to Jensen on the goal line. Denny Krominga missed the extra point as it sailed just inches to the right. It didn't matter, though, as the game was over and the Victory Bell came back to Wartburg.

Knights Hit Early

Knights opened up a 20-0 lead at halftime, but the deadly accurate passing of UIU quarterback Bob Johnson gradually pecked away at the lead until the Peacocks tied the ball game with 2:33 left to play.

Wartburg's offense worked like a well-oiled machine in the first half, but a tough Upper Iowa defense halted it time after time in the second half. The Johansen-style T finally clicked again in the final winning drive.

MARV OTT sweeps around as Dave Jensen follows the play in last Saturday's home field action. Wartburg pulled it out of a tie in the last seconds, besting Upper Iowa 26-20. Knights match Buena Vista's offensive threats at Storm Lake tonight.

PICKING UP SPLINTERS

Hats off again this week to the Knight football squad for pulling one of the most thrilling gridiron finishes ever witnessed in Wartburg competition.

As a result of the last-ditch 26-20 win over Upper Iowa, the Wartburg Student Body regained possession of the Victory Bell for the first time in a number of years. Knights whipped UIU 40-12 in 1954, but the gong went the other direction in '55, and the Peacocks have managed to possess the old locomotive ding-dong ever since.

Tonight the Knights go to Buena Vista to face another important test. BV is 1-1 in Iowa Conference play and reportedly has an outstanding offense built around quarterback Lanny Grisby. Grisby currently is in the top 10 in the United States in total offense.

University of Dubuque, top team in the conference right now, with a perfect 3-0 record, has no man in the starting lineup that weighs above 190. The backfield averages slightly more than 160 lbs., but the entire team is said to be one of the most aggressive squads the league has had for some time.

In attendance at last Saturday's UIU game was Les Duke of Grinnell, new Iowa Conference commissioner. Duke plans on visiting every school in the loop this fall as a start toward strengthening some of the conference weaknesses. His first important step will be to appoint officials for all league contests, starting in 1959.

Lineman Of The Week

Krueger

Sixty-minute man Ron Krueger, junior, is the Trumpet panel's choice for lineman of the week, following last Saturday's 26-20 win over Upper Iowa.

Krueger, from Waupun, Wis., collected five of the six votes. The lone other vote was cast for center Larry Collman, Manson sophomore.

A stalwart in Coach Norm Johansen's line for two years, Krueger was selected on the basis of outstanding play in games to date, since most panel members felt that there was no outstanding individual lineman last week.

will perform in Knights Gym. The 28 gymnasts are on a coast to coast tour. Their program lasts about two and one-half hours and is being sponsored here by the Wartburg Athletic Department.

"W" Club climaxed its fall initiation program Thursday with a banquet and final initiation stunts. Six juniors received letter jackets at the meeting. Don Sahling, Ron Krueger, Larry Raper and Chuck Nichol won jackets for two letters in football. John Tuecke was awarded a jacket for basketball and Jim Thomas earned one in track.

Wartburg will meet Northern Illinois in the first round of the Tall Corn Tourney, to be held in Waverly Dec. 29. Iowa State Teachers and Gustavus Adolphus square off at 7 on the same date in the other bracket. The finals will be in Cedar Falls the following evening, Dec. 30.

Athletic director Dr. Ax Bundgaard will be in Des Moines Monday for the district NAIA meeting, representing the Wartburg Athletic Department.

Turf Thinclads Face Loras Tues.

Wartburg's cross-country team will be out to win its first meet this year when the runners take on Loras of Dubuque Tuesday, Oct. 14, here in Waverly. The 2.6-mile course will be run at the Waverly Golf Course at 4 p.m.

According to Bob Campbell, cross-country coach, this week's runners will be Don Dietzler, Gary Moody, Bob Boettcher, Ted Kalkwarf, Roger Hubbard, Gerald Haffner and Dave Siefkes.

Play Is Cast For Staging In November

Results of play tryouts for the Wartburg Players' November production of "Charlie's Aunt" were announced this week by Vernon Lestrud, director.

Jack Chesney, will be played by sophomore Bruce Bergquist, a young man in love with Kitty Verdon, played by senior Joan Pape. Charlie, to be portrayed by Bob Boettcher, sophomore, is equally in love with Amy Spittigue, portrayed by June Marolf, also a sophomore.

In the role of Charlie's aunt will be Gloria Bierwagen, junior. Lord Babberley will be played by Alan Repp, junior.

Bob Rosenberg, sophomore, will play Stephen Spittigue, Amy's guardian. Freshman Don Ehlers will take the role of Colonel Sir Francis Chesney, Jack's father. Ela Dilahay will be portrayed by senior Betty Meyer, and Bassett by junior Dick Ferries.

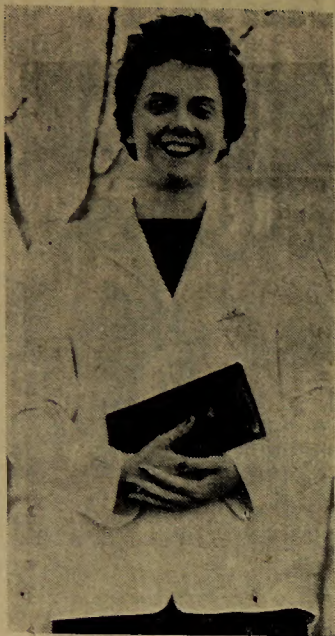

"'Charlie's Aunt' never fails to reach a highly responsive audience," stated Director Lestrud, "and Wartburg theatergoers can expect a highly enjoyable time when the production is given here Nov. 20, 21 and 22."

Commencement Speakers Picked

Judge Luther Youngdahl, former governor of Minnesota and new district judge at Washington, D. C., is first choice of the senior class for Commencement speaker next spring. The class voted during convocation last Thursday.

Next three choices are Richard Nixon, vice president of the United States; Carl Rowan, columnist of the Minneapolis Star-Tribune, and Dr. Homer Rainey, Department of Education, University of Colorado, Boulder.

WAA Elects Five

Women's Athletic Association held election of officers at its meeting last Wednesday night with Gretchen Utke, junior, being elected vice president, and Betty Meyer, senior, secretary.

Sophomores Joan Pirner and Faye Frerichs will serve as treasurer and points chairman, respectively. Charleen Linderwell, junior, is activities chairman. Carol Nutten, junior, was elected president at the final meeting last year.

Next meeting will be Oct. 15 at 7 p.m. in the Gym.

Who's Who Votes Set For Tuesday

Voting for 17 Wartburg seniors to be included in this year's edition of "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges" will take place at convocation Tuesday. The entire Student Body will ballot.

To be eligible, seniors must have a 2.5 grade average during their last three semesters and participate in extra-curricular activities. Elections Chairman Larry Nelson, junior, emphasizes that achievements, not popularity, should determine voting selection.

In addition to being listed in "Who's Who," the 17 seniors will be subjects of a special section in this year's Fortress.

Anderson Speaks

Maynard Anderson, vocal music instructor here, will speak to the Iowa Federation of Music Clubs in Waterloo this afternoon at the West Side Methodist Church. His subject will be "Music Education in American Public Schools Today."

Rehearsals Begin Monday For Wartburg Symphony

Wartburg Community Symphony Orchestra of Waverly, smallest community in the United States with a symphony orchestra, will begin rehearsals Monday, Oct. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the instrumental room of the Fine Arts Building.

Fifteen Wartburg students, including four violinists and one cellist, will participate this season. Anyone interested in joining this group should contact Ernest Hagen, director; Mrs. Dorothy Kehe, president of the symphony orchestra; or Thomas Kay, acting manager.

Castle Singers will give their traditional performance with the orchestra. Arrangements are being made to secure nationally known soloists.

Three concerts will be held this season, the first being scheduled for Monday, Nov. 10, in Knights Gymnasium. The other two will be given in February and in May.

Subscription tickets are now on sale at the First National Bank, State Bank of Waverly or the Instrumental Office at the Fine Arts Building. A family ticket costs five dollars, and an individual ticket, three dollars. Admissions for individual concerts will be sold at the door, adults paying 75c and students 50c.
